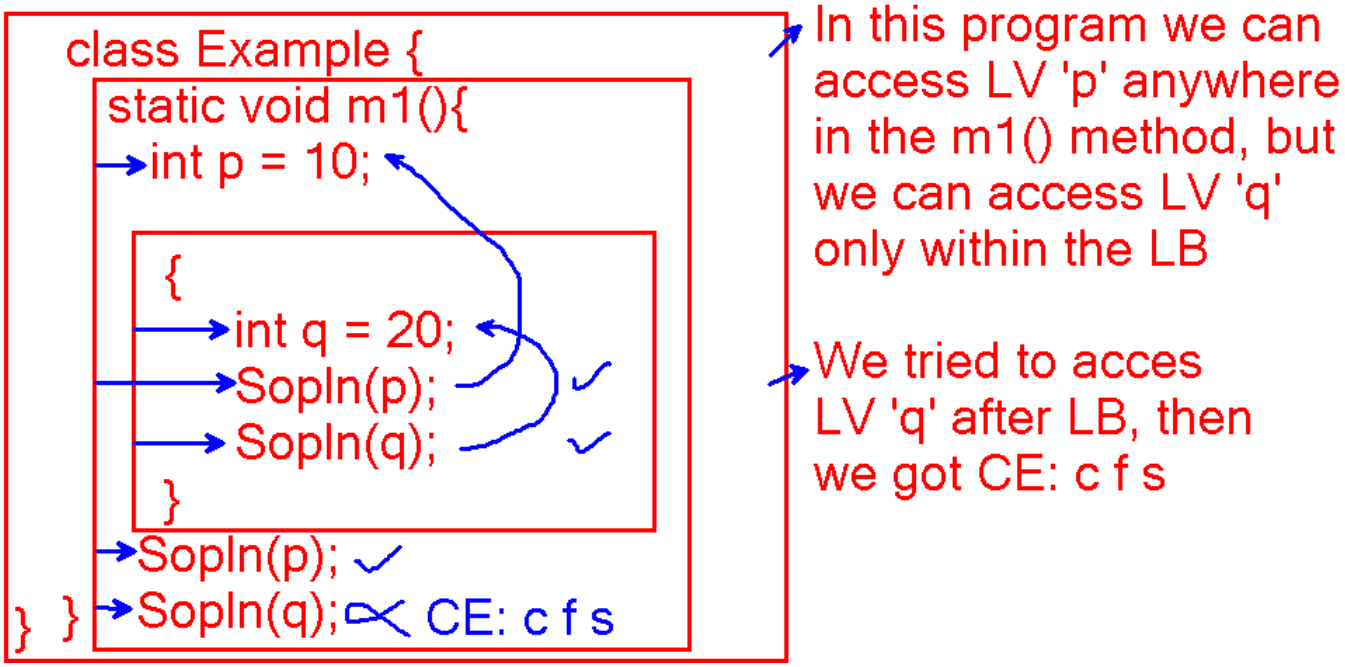
Rule on a LV that is placed inside a LB:

If we place a LV inside a LB, we can not access it after this LB. If we try to access this LV either for reading or for modifying its value, compiler will throw error: can not find symbol, because this LV scope is end by LB and it is destroyed.


For example: